Dear Sirs,

m.s. "PACIFIC BUILDER"

Reverting to correspondence which has previously taken place between us in this case, it is understood that the ship is now in Hong Kong but that no surveys are yet being held by the Surveyors to this Society, the vessel at present being laid up.

The circumstances have been reported to the Committee, who, bearing in mind the fact that the year of grace for the Special Survey is now long overdue, consider that some notation should be made against the vessel's name in the Supplement to the Register Book.

They have therefore decided to record "Surveys overdue - Class suspended 11,59." which is the normal notation assigned in cases of this nature.

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
