Dear Sir,

In answer to the question contained in your classing letter dated the 5th instant, regarding the flash point of the oil fuel on the S.S. "MODUM" Report No. 7441, I have to inform you that this is above 150° F, and not below as stated on the report.

This was a clerical error ^{for} upon which please accept the expression of my regret.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Thomas Peterson

The Secretary,
London.
