Dear Sir,

I duly received your cablegram of the 28th instant regarding the "DANUBIAN" and can only await the receipt of Mr. Macdonald's air mail copy of his letter of the 25th February which he states he sent to the British Corporation Office at Glasgow.

Meantime you should, of course, hold a confirmatory survey when the vessel returns to your port, by which time we hope to have resolved the outstanding queries.

Yours faithfully,

C. R. Maplestone, Esq.,
ALEXANDRIA.
