5th July, 1966.

Dear Sirs, m.s. ATRAX.

We thank you for your letter of the 1st instant the contents of which we transmitted to our Principals in Piraeus in order to be made known to the Owners.

We have now received their confirmation that they intend to dry dock the vessel immediately upon her return to the Continent and subsequent discharge of her cargo of grain.

For your guidance the subject tanker left River Plate on the 3rd and she is proceeding to a Continental or Mediterranean Port which is not yet known.

As soon as her destination and discharging prospects are known, Owners will arrange for the stemming of the dry dock and no doubt they will advise the Local Agents there and your Representative.

Yours faithfully,
AEGIS SHIPPING (LONDON) LTD.
