Dear Sir,

BARGE "APPET 6"

With reference to your letter dated the 2nd April and further to ours of the 6th April, it has now been learnt that the above barge arrived at Free Town on the 3rd April. As the vessel is understood to be afloat we shall be glad if you will kindly indicate the nature of the examination required and whether this should include examination on a slipway or dry dock, also whether the examination should be carried out by a surveyor from this office or by an acting surveyor.

Yours faithfully,

H. Pollock
pp: SURVEYORS.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
