2nd May, 1935.

Dear Sirs,

S.

With reference to your report No.15693 on Engine No.221561 made by Messrs.Petters, Ltd., for the motorship "JOLLY DAYS", I have to acquaint you that a request has now been received from Mr.Frederick W. Horlock for the classification Certificates of this vessel.

In the circumstances I shall be glad if you will kindly let me know whether the engine Makers are agreeable to the Certificates being handed direct to the Owner in this instance.

I may add that the hull fees are still outstanding but the Society's Aberdeen Surveyors are being requested to press for payment, and to obtain a similar consent in respect of the hull Certificate.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
SOUTHAMPTON.
