LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING,
Halifax, N. S.

Gentlemen: "RED DIAMOND IV" (ex DAUNTLESS STAR)

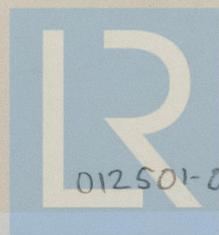

In response to your inquiry of May 27th, 1955, kindly be advised that the "RED DIAMOND IV" is now on the Slip, on refit, undergoing repairs. If you are interested in seeing the tailshaft drawn at this time, it is now opened for inspection at Sydney Engineering & Drydock Co. Sydney, N. S.

We advised you some time ago that we were not interested in keeping this vessel maintained in your Class.

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) LEONARD L. BAISLEY,
Plant Engineer.

NOTE: Phoned Mr. Gilroy and asked him to find out about this or have Owners write and tell Lloyd's they do not want the ship Classed.
