Dear Sir,

"PUKAKO"

With reference to the letter of the 24th February regarding the classification, I have to point out that the Load Line certificate has expired and in view of the freeboard survey held at Auckland in November, I send now certificates valid until the end of November, 1954 for issue when you are satisfied that the general examination required for classification has been completed.

An extra copy of the certificate is sent for the Authorities.

Yours faithfully,

W. Kimber, Esq.,
