Yours faithfully,

I remain, Dear Sir,

I refer to my Office in the above subject.

I have this enclosed a copy of my letter to you of the 11th inst.

in which I informed you that I am now going to London to attend to the business of the Bank of England.

As you are aware, the Bank of England is now in the process of re-organizing its capital.

I am, therefore, unable to attend to your letter of the 11th inst.

in which you requested me to advise you as to the
