The Secretary,
London.

Dear Sir,

Copied

I duly received your letter of the 22nd of March respecting the 13 tugs "No. 624" to "No. 633" and "No. 656", "No. 658" and "No. 743".

In connection with these cases, I have to explain that the reason of the delay in replying is due to the fact that the above vessels do no longer belong to the Marine Marchande Department, and that they have been handed to the Société Nationale des Surplus.

I have been suggested to write to the Direction des Ports of the Ministère of the Public Works, Paris. This is being done and I shall communicate to you, in due course, the reply of that Ministère.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

James
