Dear Sir,

MANHATTAN MARU

Thank you for your letter of the 2nd January, from which I note that the above Japanese owned ship, now under survey at Balboa, is also classed with the N.K.K. and that the Owners' agents have approached you as to whether Mr. Haman can act also for them.

As this is a dually classed ship we have no objection to this arrangement, and I cabled to you yesterday as follows:-

MANHATTAN MARU YOU MAY ARRANGE LR ACT
ON BEHALF NK THIS INSTANCE.

The remarks contained in your last paragraphs are appreciated, but we should deal with each individual case as it arises, and you should inform me of any further similar request.

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary

S.J. Roberts, Esq., B.Kng.,
NEW YORK.
