Enclosures.

14th September, 1934.

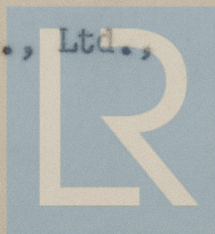

Dear Mr. Arnold,

I am much obliged to you for your letter of the 13th instant, and have the pleasure to return herewith, duly corrected as regards tonnage, the certificates of the "PINE COURT" ex "Henry Horn".

I should explain that we have not yet received the usual official return of the alteration of tonnage from the Registrar General of Shipping, but he confirmed the figures over the telephone this morning. This enables us to enter them in the certificate, which I hope you will find now all in order.

Yours sincerely,

A.J.B. Arnold, Esq.,
Messrs. E.H. Mundy & Co., Ltd.,
Walsingham House,
Seething Lane,
