LONDON

Dear Sir,

I regret, that you have had to remind me of my obligation to you, regarding the information received in your letter of the 10th inst, the Dock Supt was away most of that week, and I did not see him until Friday the 16th, I am sorry now that I delayed, in at least, acknowledging your letter.

I enclose herewith a letter from that Gentleman thanking us for the Information, which he was so anxious to have.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

The Secretary
London.
