ADMIN/F.

3rd December, 1952.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 28th ultimo regarding the tug "JAVA" and have to inform you that, in the circumstances, it is considered that a suitable fee would be 20 guineas to cover the survey of both hull and machinery so far as held.

You should, therefore, render an account to the Owners for this sum in addition to the expenses incurred, namely £6. 3.10d.

Your Report No. 125874 has been amended accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

The Outdoor Surveyors, Chief Executive.
LONDON.
