Dear Sir,

"AKI MARU"

Since writing our letter of yesterdays date in connection with classing letter of the 16th Sept. 1954, on the above vessel. We have today received a letter from our Kobe Office enclosing the original letter that we wrote to you. This was inadvertently sent to Kobe instead of London, which explains the reason for delay in arrival of the letter.

We tender our apologies, and trusting that no inconvenience has been caused thereby.

Yours faithfully,

Encls.
