Dear James,

"MOONLIGHT".

On receipt of your telephone message about the anchors of this ship I immediately got in touch with the Builders.

She has no hawse pipes and the existing anchor is worked by an anchor crane. The forecastle is so crowded that it is going to be difficult to rig the stream anchor in a suitable position.

The builders have written the Owner in Scotland to try and fix this up, but he is very dilatory in his replies and we are at present waiting to hear from him.

Kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

J. Turnbull, Esq.,
