Dear Sirs,

I am favoured with your letter of the 20th instant respecting the grate area of the boilers of the steamer "REMEMHAM", as recorded in the Society's Register Book.

On looking into the matter, I find that your explanation of the obvious error is correct, and that the grate area of this vessel's boilers should be 159 sq.ft.

In thanking you for calling my attention to this error, I have to say that instructions have at once been given for the necessary correction to be made in the Society's Register Book. Unfortunately, however, it cannot appear in the reprint for the new Register Book, which will shortly be issued, as this is already printed off, but will appear in the first supplement.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Watts, Watts & Co., Ltd.,
