We thank you for your letters of the 1st December, 1953 notifying us that special surveys are becoming due on these vessels.

In view of the age of these vessel, the present state of the industry, and/possibility that they may be scrapped in the near future, it is our policy to have these vessels surveyed annually, and we have informed our underwriter's surveyors of this. Both vessels are now in dock for the purposes of this examination.

We shall be obliged if you will inform us if this policy can fit in with your rules and regulations.
