LIVERPOOL, 3.

Dear Sirs,

Steam Trawler "INCHOLM".

With regard to survey of the above vessel, we beg to be excused from any extensive opening up of Machinery on the grounds that since the last survey in 1947, the vessel has done very little service as she has been laid up in a preserved condition at Birkenhead since 3rd September 1948 and main engine has been turned periodically and will now be partially opened up for degreasing and renewal of packing.

This vessel is making a voyage to Italy where it is anticipated will shortly be undertaking a general conversion.

Thanking you,

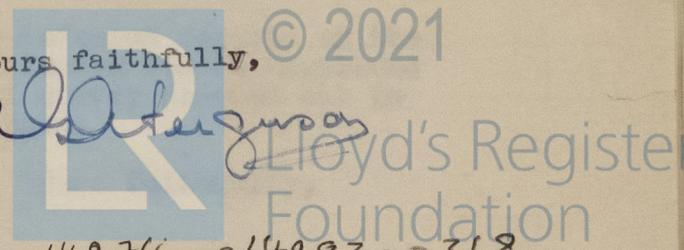

Yours faithfully,

J. Ferguson
