

DIKSHIT MANEKALAL & Co.
Solicitors
23, Meadows Street
Bombay

(COPY)

10th April 1952.

Messrs. Modern Mechanical & Marine Works

93, Chinchbunder Road,
Bombay.9.

Dear Sirs,

In Re: Shri Ambica Steam Navigation Co. Ltd., and

re: S.S. "LAXMI"

Our clients Messrs. Shri Ambica Steam Navigation Co. Ltd. inform us that Mr. J.F. James of Lloyd's Register of Shipping by his letter of the 5th instant has enquired about the arrangement intended to be made to complete the special survey of the vessel s.s. "Laxmi" above named.

You are aware that in the course of the correspondence that has been exchanged in the matter of the accounts of the repair work carried out by you to the 3 snips belonging to our clients, several complaints have been made against you by our clients, including the complaint that you have not duly completed the general survey repair to the said vessel which you had undertaken and agreed to do and also that you have wrongly stopped the repair work and that you have not returned a number of valuable parts thereof and the vessel's lifeboat. Under the circumstances, you will please let us know when our clients should expect you to complete the repair work undertaken by you and fit up the parts and the lifeboat that are at present being wrongly withheld.

© 2021

P.T.O.

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

015273-015283-0228

(COPY)

DIRSHIT MANERIAL & Co.
Societars
23, Market Street
Bombay

10th April 1932.

While on the subject, we have to inform you clients will hold you responsible for all damage mentioned in the correspondence above referred as for the damages that our clients may suffer of the said vessel being damaged due to the rain are now about to set in.

Our clients Messrs. J. P. James of Lloyd's Register of Ltd. inform us that Mr. J. P. James of Lloyd's Register of Shipping by his letter of the 5th instant has enquired about the arrangement intended to be made to complete the special survey of the vessel s.s. "Laxmi" above named.

Yours faithfully

You are aware that in the course of the correspondence that has been exchanged in the matter of the accounts of the repair work carried out by you to the 3 ships belonging to our clients, several complaints have been made against you by our clients, including the complaint that you have not fully completed the general survey repair to the said vessel which you had undertaken and agreed to do and also that you have wrongly stopped the repair work and that you have not returned a number of valuable parts thereof and the vessel's lifeboat. Under the circumstances, you will please let us know when our clients should expect you to complete the repair work undertaken by you and fit up the parts and the lifeboat that are at present being wrongly

P.T.O.

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

015483-0392