Dear Sir:

"TANDJONG OEBAN"

I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th instant enclosing, for my information, a copy of a further letter which has been addressed to Mr. A.J. Mc Cowan at Sydney, the contents of which have been noted.

I might add that the account of charges of the Sydney, N. S. W. Surveyors has been rendered by this office to the owners in New York, who advise that they are arranging to make payment to you from their London funds.

I am, Dear Sir

Yours faithfully,

[Handwritten signature]

The Secretary,

I am, Dear Sir,
In reply to your letter of the 27th inst. regarding the proposed extension of the London and South Western Railway from the present terminus at Waterloo to the proposed terminus at the Victoria Station. I am sorry to hear that the proposed extension is not being considered. I am, however, glad to hear that the proposed extension is not being considered. I am, however, glad to hear that the proposed extension is not being considered.

Yours faithfully,
The Secretary
