

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C.

25th June, 1913.

Dear Dr.Thearle,

I hope that after your fourteen days' hard labour with the Visitation Committee you are now enjoying the holiday arranged by the Institution of Naval Architects for their Summer Meetings, and that you are being, and will continue to be, favoured with good weather, which makes such a difference on the Clyde.

As you are in Scotland, the Chairman and Deputy Chairman think it well to bring the case of the S.S."ARMIDA" ex "GREENDYKE" under your notice, and if you can, without inconvenience, pay a visit to Aberdeen before you return, it is suggested that it would be well for you to look into this case. In any event you will no doubt make inquiry regarding the survey which was held at Ardrossan in 1911.

Yours faithfully,

A. Scott

S.J.P.Thearle, Esq., D.Sc.,
Central Station Hotel,
GLASGOW.

© 2019

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

ARN52-0173