

SURVEYOR'S OFFICE AMSTERDAM, 30 May 1888.

D.

B. Weymouth Esq.
London.

Sir.

In reply to your letter of April 9th I regret to say that during the cleaning of the office I have mislaid the tracing of the "Prins Frederik Hendrik" and the papers belonging thereto, as well as from an other vessel and that it was only by going through "unanswered letters" that I found it out.

Hoping to be excused for this oversight I beg leave to forward the original tracing instead of the photoprint, as required.

With reference to my letter M 6 April 88 I beg to say that I mistook the bilge stringer for the side stringer in giving the description, the side stringer is double L  $5\frac{1}{2} \times 4 \times \frac{3}{16}$  over about  $\frac{1}{2}$  length.

Hoping to receive the certificate soon

I am

Sir.

Your obedient servant

H. F. D. Van Olfen
