

ference

Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping.

Belfast

August 11th 1888

The Secretary

Lloyd's Register of Shipping
London

Les.

The S. S. "Bostonian", to which the enclosed report refers, has left this port ^{to-day} for Liverpool, whence she is intended to sail for Boston on Wednesday next, 15th Inst. Under these circumstances Messrs Harland & Wolff have requested me to say that they would esteem it a favor if the Freeboard could be assigned so that it could be marked on the vessel before she leaves.

I am,

Dear

Your obedient servant
James Chapman

Butts from Keel to turn of Bilge, worked ^{tapped treble} ~~carvel~~, double riveted; with rivets 1 in. diameter averaging 4 ins.
Butts of all Strakes at Bilge for Entire length, treble riveted with Butt Straps 4 in. diameter averaging 3 1/2 ins.
Edges from Bilge to Main St. 4 in. diameter averaging 3 1/2 ins. thicker than the

1 in. R
and to 1/2
of space 3 and ed: 9/20

BTLS5-0020