February 26th 1898

The Secretary
London.

Sir,

I beg to inform you that the new vessel "Monmouth," Messrs Harland & Wolff's "B", has left this port in tow for Liverpool, where the engines & boilers are to be fitted by Messrs Fawcett.
Preston & Co.

The only thing remaining to be completed, so far as the hull is concerned, is the permanent closing in over the engines & boilers.

The Liverpool Surveyors have been advised.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant
James Furber
