26th January, 1903.

Sir,

M.

In compliance with the request received from the Owners of the steamer "MAPLEMORE", the name of which vessel it is understood it is now desired to have changed to "CITY OF EDINBURGH", I beg to inform you that the Society's requirements as regards survey have been complied with, and the vessel's class of 100A1 will be maintained in the Society's Register Book, subject to indents in the bottom plating being dealt with on the next occasion of the vessel being placed in dry dock.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

pro Secretary.

The Assistant Secretary,

Marine Department,

Board of Trade,

Whitehall Gardens, S.W.
