RECEIVED
LONDON
JUL 23 1900

The Secretary
Sir.

July 21st 1900
189

The only suggestion I can think of is that the remainder of the Damase Survey of S.S. from copy 2680 must have been overlooked in the envelope as it appears to have been sent from here as my copy No 966 of the page is the first half and 969 is missing. I have now sent for my copy following on the No 968 & 969 for the book
as I find them which I took at the same time I shall feel obliged if you will please send me the copy & return

I am Sir.

Your obedient servant
G. Westcott

The Secretary
