Sir, In reply to your letter of the 3rd instant relating to the S.S. "Brimston" I beg leave to advise you that at the time of sending my Report, in this vessel it was intended that she might be chartered or employed by owner, in the English Channel & so on.
I have again seen the Managing Owner who states that at present she will be engaged this year in the Bristol Channel but it may be necessary to extend her voyage occasionally to the Irish Islands.

I would therefore respectfully recommend that my recommendation be altered to "For Bristol Channel Purposes."

I am,

Yours obedient servant
J. W. W.

and this case receives the consideration the Committee the Surveyor should requested to state whether it is still needed for this vessel to trade in English Channel in view of his recommendation that she be re-classed "English Channel purposes". If vessel is not to be limited to the English Channel the Surveyor should ascertain and state for the information the Committee between what ports is intended she is to trade, and offer recommendations as to the class accordingly.
