

copy
Barrow in Furness 4th Dec 1894

Dear Sirs,

The new steamer "Clan Mackay" has left this port for Glasgow and to complete the survey and

copy
Glasgow 6th Dec^r 1894

Sir

I beg to enclose a letter from the Society's Surveyor at Barrow in Furness re the safety valves of the new steamer "Clan Mackay" and to say that the owners inform me that the vessel sails tonight for Liverpool where it is intended to fit new springs in the safety valves and have them readjusted and tried under steam

I am

Sir

Your obedient servant

(R.S.G.) James Mollison

W. B. Davey Esq^r
Liverpool

© 2020

Lloyd's Register Foundation

BRW44-0025