Cardigan 6 May 1871.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Secretary "Lloyd's" in letter of 3rd Inst
having kindly acceded to my request that you should inspect my Margue "Ann Wilson"
now at Cardiff, I have to inform you that as time would not admit of her being sent on the Griction, she is entered for loading, and look forward when she brings me a cargo of Frinton

next autumn to place
her in your hands for survey and Classification.

I am
Dear Sir
Yours truly
W. Davies
