Wood Schooner "Rheidol" 107 Tons

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 1st inst.
respecting the caulking of this vessel - I beg respectfully to state that the Captain declined having her caulked as requested by you. - But the topsides above the wall on each side, and also the decks have now been caulked.

The Captain states that he intends to take her to this Port about the end of the present year to have her re-classed.

I am,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

William John,

Surveyor.

The,

Secretary.
