Dear Sir

Referring to our former letter the "John O'Gaunt" has now been drydocked at Cardiff, plating been drilled, windlass examined also masts & spars and we think everything done to comply with No. 3 Survey except lifting close ceiling and as we are anxious to proceed with loading we will feel obliged if you will allow this to be done on ship's return to complete survey.

Yours truly
