Dear Mr. Milton

In continuation of my respect of yesterday with reference to the E.L. Report on S/s Herakles - the Builders and the Electric Engineers (in Stockholm, Sweden) now inform me with reference to the Power Installation, that although the Capacity of the Dynamo is given at 116 Amperes - it can not be worked ~~at~~ above 80 Amperes as the Engine has not got the power to do more. and hence the Main & Branch Cables will have ample sectional Areas.

I remain, Dear Mr. Milton,

Yours faithfully
Frederick Arkz
Surveyor

James F. Milton Esqre
Chief Engineer Surveyor
of Lloyd's Register.
