

Royal Victoria Dock Yard.
Passage West, Cork.
April 3. 1876

We certify that the anchors on board the "Baque" light Brigade are the same as were in her when we purchased her and we cannot obtain the certificates of attestation we could only <sup>find</sup> among the ships papers the certificate of test for her old chains and we have now supplied her with new chains and have produced the certificates for the test of same to Mr George Wright.
