ANSR 216

31st May

1899

The Secretary, London,

Sir,

With reference to the equipment of the Bk: "Sachsen". I beg respectfully to be informed, what, if any of the anchors & chains of this vessel have been accepted by the committee.

The manager of the docks here states that evidence has been forwarded to the London office, that the cables were tested at a testing house recognised by the society; and with reference to my letter of the 26th Inst, respecting the marks on two anchors on board this vessel, I shall be glad to be informed how the case stands as regards these anchors and cables.

I am,
Yours obedient servant,
J. W. Sulland

Referred to the Chief Surveyor.

*: The marks to which the letter here refers appertain to two anchors
for which duplicate test certs. have been issued.
