Dear Sirs,

S. I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th instant respecting your steamer "BRAY HEAD", and to acquaint you that your remarks on the subject of the completion of the Special Survey No.1 of this vessel recently carried out at Dublin have been carefully noted.

In reply I have to say that it was a matter of much regret to the Committee that they found themselves unable consistently with the Society's Rules to agree to the postponement of the completion of the survey for another voyage as you desired.

The Committee are at all times desirous as far as they possibly can of meeting the convenience of Shipowners in carrying out the requirements of the Society's Rules, and in the present instance, as you are aware, they had already agreed to the completion of the survey being postponed upon several occasions.

In view, however, of the twelve months' grace allowed for the completion of the survey having expired so long ago as April last, the Committee felt that in fairness to other Owners the completion of the survey should not be postponed any longer.

The Committee desire me to add that they are much gratified at the expression of your satisfaction of the Society's Surveyor at Dublin and at the cordial terms of your remarks respecting your relations with the Committee.

They can assure you that your wishes as regards the surveys of your vessels will at all times receive their most careful consideration, and they can only trust that the pleasant relations to which you are good enough to refer will continue in the future.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,
