Dear Sir

LLOYD'S REGISTER
LONDON
13 NOV 1914

Enacted
I beg to acquaint you that it is intended (at last) to place the Bk "Crocodile" in the Graving Dock here tomorrow. Further the (also a dragging Case) schooner "Oliven" has got out of No 1 Graving Dock Ringend - Where she has been measured - also, there has been some Bankruptcy matter on the part of the London Sellers of the Motor Engine &c. The last arrangement is that the Ringend Dockyard people are to finish the Motor. Much regret to add that some of my reports are overdue through press of work, but I hope to get some away on Sunday first.

The Secretary

Yours faithfully
Macwilliam

Referred to the Chief Ship Surveyor
and the Chief Engineer Surveyor.
