3rd. April. 1900.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, respecting the case of your steamer "LORD PANMURE", and in reply thereto beg to inform you that under the circumstances the Society's Surveyors at Falmouth are being instructed by telegram and letter to survey this vessel to-morrow at Penzance, in accordance with your request.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Messrs. Bain, Sons & Co.,

Portreath, near Redruth,

CORNWALL.
