Messrs Loyne Hartley & Co
Gentlemen

I am in receipt of your Telegram acquainting me that the New ropes required for the S.S. Deerhound are not yet placed on board. In Mr Vincent's letter dated the 5th inst, he said they would be placed on board on her arrival at Liverpool this time, and also said you did not intend sending them on by rail or buy them at Falmouth, for either way it would be more expensive. It will be more expensive if you let her run out of class for want of them, he made quite an uncalled for remark that ship owners do not often make, that is if they were condemned in the first place they would have been put on board at Falmouth. Some thing must be left until last, but there was plenty of time to get them here after they were condemned it was day before she went to dry dock, I have no doubt I should have seen them sooner if I did not spend spend so much of my time down in the Boiler space trying to save you all I could possibly do, but there is no thanks for that. If I condemned the Keelson & floors in the first place and went to see after the two ropes &c. You would be better pleased, I shall know what to do in the future. Kindly send me on a cheque for the fees, and we will send our report on to the Committee and let them deal with it as they think proper.

at the same time say when you think that this vessel will receive the ropes.

I am

Gentlemen

Your obedient servant.

J. H. Sandrey

P. S. I will be glad if you would kindly answer my letters yourselves. it is the Owners we have to deal with.
