Genoa the 19th of March 1878

The Secretary,
Sir,

As requested by your letter dated 12th instant marked M, I have written to the owners of the two Wood Steamers building by L. Garavito at Voreppe requesting to state for what trade they were intended for and the names of the limiting ports between which they had to ply.

I beg leave to send you herewith enclosed their answers in which they state that they are intended for the Indian Ocean trade and the limiting ports given are Strait of Malacca, Island of Java, Sumatra, Borneo, Siam, Tonchino, Cochin Hong Kong, Shanghai, Philippine Island and Japan.

I have to add that Mr Westernman has been provided with the drawing of the plan of the first one building.

I am
Yours obedient servant
J. S. S. Shipping
