19th March 1887.

Gentlemen,

With reference to the classification in this Society Register Book of your names & address I am directed to draw your attention to the fact that, in view of the annual reconstruction of this record book, they will require to be submitted to the inspection of the Society Engineer Surveyors at intervals of not more than six months, and that the suitableness of the record character in the Register Book will be subject to the due fulfilment of this condition.

The first inspection, I may add, will fall due in September next.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours obedient servant,

Superintendent of the Society
