Dear Sir,

Referring to our letter of the 31st ulto, we should like your Committee to be informed that the "Apyrian Monarch"⁽¹⁹⁾ has just arrived at this port from New York: she experienced severe weather in crossing, but has nevertheless landed all her cattle (342) alive and in good condition - not even a bruise on any of them. The Persian Monarch⁽¹⁹⁾ did likewise last month.

These facts speak for themselves in favor of the Cattle Shelter Deck.

There is just one other point we would mention, bearing on the subject of our last, which is that these vessels are in better trim deep than light; and keeping the weight well up we find, as you will well understand, makes them easier at sea.

Yours truly,
