S.S.No.1 due May, 1894.

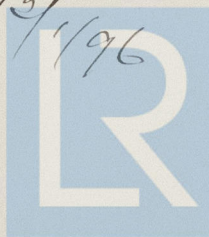

In June last the General Committee allowed this vessel to retain her class subject to the inspection in question taking place on her arrival home about the end of November. The vessel recently arrived at Queenstown and the Owners were asked to state where the survey would take place. They write that she left Queenstown on the 6th instant for Westport, where she is now due. She is not yet fixed but will load either at Glasgow, Liverpool or Cardiff, at one of which ports the survey will take place.
