To The Secretary

Lloyds Committee

2 White Lion Court

Comhill London E.

Dear Sir,

We beg to own receipt of your favor of 23 inst.

After a long experience with your Committee, we cannot accept the drastic course you latter indicates, as being consistent with the uniform kindness & courtesy we have received always at their hands.

Whilst we endeavour, at all times to comply, fairly with all regulations they formulate, and we believe, we have many times in the past helped them with suggestions gleaned from our long experience in the Trade. we claim they cannot, with fairness to themselves, and us, mould us in a box, like the present and without giving proper consideration to our arguments, and we believe, these, being

True, are practically unanswerable, given briefly in Case is

These Anchors are of proper proportion and they agree with the Model you have approved. & with the Sketch mentioned in your Letter. of 19 inch the intimation of any suggested alterations required by you has reached us.

We are advised, the trading of the Foot Note to Tabl. 22. is of a permissive character, whatever may have been the intention of its authors.

Under those Circumstances we beg you will urge the Surveyor at the ship to receive these anchors, as the matter is getting very urgent.

We assure you, we are always desirous of carrying out your Rules. fairly & without any wish to shrink from them

Yours truly
