The Secretary,

LONDON

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 10th instant, I now enclose herewith a plan, in duplicate, showing the connections of the stringers to the bulkheads in the steamer "SOLGLINT". The Builders suggest that if it is considered necessary to reinforce these it might be done by means of electric welding.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Geo. Webster

Handwritten notes and signatures:
"The plan is for the stringers to be welded to the bulkheads..."
