Dock Office Buildings, West Hartlepool.

September 17. 1891.

Sir

In reply to your letter of the 18th inst., respecting the pumping arrangements of Messrs R. McKay & Co No 185 S. S., we beg respectfully to state, that, the contents of your letter of the 8th instant, were communicated to the Builders, and we gave no permission to dispense with any of the requirements contained in your letter; and as the result of this, we understood Mr McKay & Mr.
Sivewright would bring the matter before you, for consideration on the occasion of their visit to London.

We beg to add, that, we have received no communication from the Builders, as to their intentions, and the vessel has proceeded to-day, to a loading berth in Tyne Dock, and the suction required in your letter have not been fitted.

We are, Sir
Your obedient Servants.

Thos Phillips
