13th. November. 1899.

Gentlemen,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th. instant, in reference to the fees to be charged in the case of the steamer "CLAM", and with regard thereto I am directed to state that the fees proposed by you for the survey of the damage repairs of this vessel with a view to the re-instatement of her class are considered fair and reasonable, in view of the nature and extent of the services rendered in this case. I have therefore to authorise you to render accounts accordingly.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your Obedient Servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

WEST HARTLEPOOL.
