ss "Tyne Queen"

Sir,

The fact of your circular No 473 dated 2nd inst relating to above named steamer demanding reply has been quite overlooked, for which pray accept my apologies. She is now on passage to Lisbon but due here next month; I assume that the mark  she now carries at 17 feet 5 inches mean draft and appointed by your committee for maximum salt water shall be altered to  to conform with your circular No 472. Upon hearing from you in confirmation the necessary instructions will be issued on board the ship.

I am, Sir

Your obedient servant.

J. W. Smith
