Sir,

Answering your letter of yesterday this steamer is due at Hamburg end of present week, finishing up the consecutive voyage charter; excepting for meeting with very bad weather & consequent detention on Spanish coast this winter, same would have been worked through early part of this month. — In order to get her to Hull for the special survey she has been fixed to take coals out and bring back back direct here from Sweden & should arrive in course of June; when near at hand the exact date shall be notified to you in order that necessary arrangements may be made.

Trusting this will meet your views,

I am, Sir

Your obedient servant.

Jos. W. Smith

She is telegraphed passing Dover this morning.
