

COLVIL, LOWDEN & CO.
LATE
A.C. COLVIL & CO.
BROKERS FOR CHARTER, PURCHASE, SALE
AND CONSTRUCTION OF STEAMERS.

75, Buchanan Street,

Glasgow, 18th June 1884

B. Maymonth Esq. M.R.S.
2 White Lion Court
Cornhill London

Dear Sir,

We expected to have a reply from you as to class of S.S. Prince Alfred - When writing us you ought also kindly say if we could cut this steamer and lengthen her 20 feet without any extra strengthening & still retain the 100 A. 1. Class.

Yours truly
Colvils, Lowden & Co.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

HUL 396-0064

19/6/84
S.S. "Princess Alfred"

H. Murtice
W. Murtice
W. Murtice

It is submitted that the writers should be requested to state whether they are the owners of this vessel, or whether their enquiry is made on the behalf of Col. Hopkinson of Scarborough who is the Honorary official liquidator of the Yorkshire Steam Trawling Co. for which Company the vessel was built.

In the meantime the information sought by the writers in their former letter should be communicated to Col. Hopkinson, and an intimation that this has been done made to the writers of this letter.

Lt. recd. 19th June 84

Ans. "

(Spec. advice to Col. Hopkinson)

(attached to Lt. Entry report)

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation